PENNSYLVANIA JUNIOR WRESTLING

I. Pennsylvania Junior Wrestling

A. Definition: Pennsylvania Junior Wrestling is a non-profit organization providing youth, an opportunity to participate in the sport of wrestling. It is not only the goal to develop wrestlers but also to contribute to the development of the moral, physical, mental, and emotional attitudes of young people as they develop toward adulthood.

PJW Tournaments are designed to give any youngster residing full time, in Pennsylvania and meeting the established requirements set by the Pennsylvania Junior Wrestling Committee, the previously mentioned opportunities.

B. Acronyms

1. Pennsylvania Junior Wrestling shall also be known as PJW.
2. Pennsylvania Junior Wrestling Committee, which is the policy making and administrative board for PJW, shall be known as the PJWC.

C. Organization and Operation

1. PJW, a Pennsylvania non-profit corporation, is organized and operated exclusively for the charitable and educational purposes described above. In general, PJW will foster and promote national and international sports competition by developing athletes for that competition, primarily by operating on a local, regional, and state level.
2. No part of the organization's net revenues will inure to the benefit of private individuals.

- c. Each wrestler must have a coach in his/her corner before a bout can begin.
5. Forfeits
- a. A wrestler will forfeit if not making weight during the weigh-in hours established.
 - b. A wrestler will forfeit if called three (3) successive times for the bout (to the staging area, or to the designated mat if no staging is in use) and does not appear. The calls will be made every two minutes, and the maximum time for all three calls will be a total of six (6) minutes until a forfeit will be called. The calls will be made within the staging area and by the announcer so it is heard on the main arena floor. Calls will be “1. X Wrestler report immediately to Mat # or to Staging; 2. Second Call for X Wrestler to Mat # or to Staging; and 3. FINAL CALL for X Wrestler to Mat # or to Staging.”
 - 1.) If a wrestler does not report to staging when called, another bout may be sent to the mat during this time if able.
 - 2.) If three calls have been made, and six minutes elapses, and the wrestler has not reported ready to wrestle, staging (or the mat if no staging is in use) will inform the head table that a forfeit has been declared. The wrestler receiving the forfeit will appear on the mat and receive the forfeit. Any bout forfeited by this rule will not be changed after the forfeit is awarded. In the event of extenuating circumstances, the Tournament Director may suspend this rule with approval from PJWC Chairperson or PJWC Vice Chairperson.
 - 3.) Note – PIAA Forfeit Rule Observed: If a contestant forfeits a bout for any reason, he/she is disqualified from subsequent tournament rounds.
6. Round Robin Criteria
- a. In Area or Qualifier tournaments, when a round robin pairing system is used in a given weight class, the following criteria will be used, if all three wrestlers finish the competition with the same win/loss record. The first criterion that is met shall determine the winner:
 - 1. The wrestler whose opponent has been penalized for flagrant or unsportsmanlike conduct shall be declared the winner.
 - 2. The wrestler who wins by fall, default, or disqualification shall be declared the winner.
 - 3. The wrestler who wins by technical fall shall be declared the winner.
 - 4. The wrestler who wins by major decision shall be declared the winner.
 - 5. The wrestler who has the greater number of first points scored shall be declared the winner.
 - 6. The wrestler who has scored the greater number of points for near falls shall be declared the winner.
 - 7. The wrestler who has scored the greater number of takedowns shall be declared the winner.

8. The wrestler who has scored the greater number of reversals shall be declared the winner.
9. The wrestler who has scored the greater number of escapes shall be declared the winner.
10. The wrestler who has been penalized the least for stalling shall be declared the winner.
11. The wrestler who has been warned the least for stalling shall be declared the winner.
12. The wrestler whose opponent has been penalized the most for all other infractions shall be declared the winner.
13. If all of the above eliminates one wrestler, the remaining two wrestlers will wrestle one match to determine the winner.

C. Supplementary PJW Controls

1. Officials
 - a. Must be a PIAA card carrier for any PJW Tournament.
 - b. Will use PIAA rules except where PJWC has modified them.
 - c. Are Accountable to the PJWC to follow all PJW Rules and will follow the Code of Ethics for Officials Participating at PJW Events
 - d. Any official's decision on rules or calls that is appealed is to be directed to the Head Referee for disposition. All decisions by the head referee are final.
 - e. All Matches in the State Championships will have a referee and an assistant referee.
 - f. Will be evaluated at the State Championship Tournament in accordance with the PJW Wrestling Official Evaluation Policy, which is administered by the PJW Officials Review Committee.
2. Sales at tournament sites must be authorized by the Area Chairpersons, or the State Tournament Director at the PJW State Championships.
3. Tournament results and public relations are the responsibility of each Area, or the State Tournament Director at the PJW State Championships.
4. The shaking of hands after a match by a wrestler with the opposing coach is optional and should be encouraged.
5. Physician, Certified Athletic Trainer, or a Physician Assistant or Nurse Practitioner specifically trained in sports medicine must be present at all PJW Tournaments, and an ambulance must be on call or on site at all times.
6. Coaches and/or spectators will be ejected from a PJW Tournament when they do not conduct themselves in a fashion pursuant for a youth program.
7. Any person ejected for misconduct should be identified on the PJW Report of Flagrant Misconduct form (Appendix C). If the person ejected is a spectator, that person may not act as a coach in any subsequent PJW tournament during that year.

V. PJWC Guidelines for Participants

A. Conduct Code

1. Each entrant/guardian must complete and sign the Entrants Code of Conduct statement that is part of the PJW Entry Form as shown on Appendix A
3. Contestants are expected to demonstrate good sportsmanship on and off the mat. Unsportsmanlike conduct can result in deduction of match points, disqualification from the tournament, and/or removal from the premises. A PJW Report of Flagrant Misconduct (Appendix C) should be completed if appropriate. PJWC disciplinary may follow.
4. Contestants are expected to refrain from damaging or defacing any part of the host buildings or grounds. Such action will result in eviction from the premises and/or prosecution. PJWC disciplinary action will follow.
5. Contestants are representing PJW while staying in the host community; therefore, any misbehavior in the host community may result in prosecution and subsequent PJWC disciplinary action.

B. PJWC Disciplinary Action for Contestants

1. The PJWC, following the established Due Process (outlined in "C"), may vote to withdraw honors earned, and/or suspend the contestant from future PJW participation.

C. Due Process

1. The constitutional rights of the individual participants are assured and protected by the due process of law. Therefore, the following procedure will be administered when the Code of Conduct is violated.
 - a. PJWC will notify the participant/guardian of the specific violations in writing within 20 days of the incident.
 - b. The participant/guardian shall submit a written response to the alleged violation within 10 days of receiving the notification.
 - c. This written response will be taken to the PJWC Spring Meeting for consideration.
 - d. There will be no use of video recordings (or other recording methods) in considering decisions made, for the purpose of reviewing incidents for disciplinary issues or part of due process.
 - e. The participant/guardian will be notified in writing of the date of the Spring Meeting (usually held in May) and given the opportunity to appear before the committee with counsel. No appearance will be interpreted as accepting the PJWC decision. All discussion and questions by the PJWC will occur in executive session; the complainant will be excused from executive session for deliberation by the PJWC. The PJWC will issue any related decision, or conduct any vote in open session.

- f. The participant/guardian will be notified in writing of the PJWC decision within 10 days of the Spring Meeting.

D. Applicability

1. The aforementioned (A-Conduct Code, B-Disciplinary Action, C-Due Process) will apply to all levels of PJW competition - Sectional, Sub-Area, Area, and State Championships)

VI. Guidelines for PJWC members, or all representatives of PJW.

A. Conduct Code

2. All members and representatives shall abide by all PJW Rules and Regulations or any mandates by the PJWC.
3. All members and representatives are expected to demonstrate good sportsmanship and good moral character. They shall abide by, and promote the goals of PJW. They will conduct themselves in the best interest of the competitors, the sport, and the organization (PJW).
4. All PJWC members will be required to submit a background check for child abuse or violence against children every 5 years. A committee of the PJWC will review the background checks to assure compliance with PJW Sexual Abuse Prevention policy. Failure to comply with PJW Sexual Abuse Prevention Policy, or to submit a background check will result in removal from the PJWC.
5. Any violation by PJWC members or representatives of PJW could result in PJWC disciplinary action.
6. Legal convictions, missing two consecutive meetings without proper representation by an Alternate or designee, or failure to complete operational duties also constitute reasons for possible disciplinary action.

B. PJW Disciplinary Action for Members or Representatives

1. The PJWC, following the established Due Process (outlined in "C"), may vote to take disciplinary action.

C. Due Process

1. The constitutional rights of the individual are assured and protected by the due process of law. Therefore, the following procedure will be administered when necessary.
2. Steps of Resolution:
 - a. Problems/disagreements should be handled at the lowest level applicable. If unable to resolve, it should be referred to the next level, and the decision maker should be certain to personally hear both sides of the dispute. If necessary in ascending order for resolution is as follows:
 - i. Area Sub chairperson, Sectional Chairperson, or Area Designee
 - ii Area Chairperson

- iii. PJW Chairperson
- iv. PJWC
- b. At any stage, there will be no use of video recordings (or other recording methods) in considering decisions made, for the purpose of reviewing incidents for disciplinary issues or part of due process.
- c. Any issue not resolved by the PJW Chairperson should be submitted in writing to the PJWC by the complainant within 10 days. The PJWC will notify the individuals involved of this action as soon as practicable, and will forward the written complaint to the member or representative within 10 days of receipt.
- d. The member or representative shall submit a written response to the alleged violation within 10 days of receiving the notification.
- e. The issue will be placed on the agenda of the next PJWC meeting for consideration.
- f. The complainant and the member or representative will be notified in writing of the date of the next PJWC meeting, and will be given the opportunity to appear before the committee with counsel. No appearance by either party will be interpreted as accepting the PJWC decision.
- g. All discussion and questions by the PJWC will occur in executive session (PJWC Officers, Area Chair and Alternates only); the complainant and involved member or representative will be excused from executive session for deliberation by the PJWC. The PJWC will issue any related decision, or conduct any vote in open session.
- h. The complainant and involved members or representatives will be notified in writing of the decision within 10 days of the PJWC meeting. Any disciplinary action to members or representatives will be held confidential, and the complainant will be informed of only the details that are appropriate for them to know, and do not compromise confidentiality of any PJWC member or representative.

D. Forms of Discipline (require majority vote of PJWC)

- 1. No action at PJWC level
- 2. Verbal or written reprimand
- 3. Suspension of office or position
- 4. Dismissal from office or position (requires 2/3 majority vote of PJWC, rounded to next higher number of PJWC voting membership)
- 5. Other appropriate action as determined by the PJWC

E. Applicability

- 1. The aforementioned (A-Conduct Code, B-Disciplinary Action, C-Due Process, D-Forms of Discipline) will apply to all members of the PJWC, or any person acting as a representative of PJW at any level of PJW. This includes Area level or below, or at the statewide level.
